September 15 • 7:00 pm

"Futurism" is the art of predicating the future. Throughout history, the future has been predicated by soothsayers, fortune tellers, and scholars. In recent years, futurists have become popular for predicating social, economic, and business trends that can help companies and government guide their decisions. In this lively presentation, Jeff Kressman will profile a few leading futurist and some of the predications for our current age.

Palatine Penny Postcard Parade

In the first decade of the 20th century, postcard collecting was the biggest hobby around.

Our collection at the Palatine Historical Society includes some very early, some very unusual, some very interesting, and some very "Palatine" postcards.

Seniors

The Palatine Township Senior Citizens Council is a private, non-profit corporation that is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors. The PTSCC Center is located at 505 S. Quentin Road and is open Monday - Friday from 8:30 am - 5:00 pm. The facility includes a wellness clinic, noontime dining 5 days a week, a midday respite program for seniors with memory loss, an exercise/aerobics room, a library/lounge area, a fitness room, an arts & crafts room, private casework/counseling services, trips and special events, and more!
